Mr. Charles Collier,
28 Anderson R. D.,
Burger Homeston or Horneston,
London, England.

Dear Mr. Collier:

I am getting up a genealogy of the Collier family in America, and in writing Mrs. W. J. Collier, San Francisco, Cal., U. S. A., she advised me that her husband, Mr. William John Collier, was deceased in July 22, 1922, and she gave me your address to get up information regarding the Collier family. She also stated that her husband had a brother named Robert and a sister named Sarah. I wish to say that the name Robert is very common among the Colliers here in America. My great-grand-father was named Robert likewise my grand-father and several Uncles and Cousins. Sarah is also a very common name in each and every Collier family. I have a daughter by that name. She further stated that you had a brother named John that was a great artist and sculptor.

My son, Mr. Curward Cuthbert Collier, was in England this past winter, he was in London two or three weeks and Manchester about six weeks, but at that time I did not know of you otherwise I would have had him call on you personally.

Robert Collier who was our original ancestor and his wife was Mary Strangs, widow of St. Botolph Aldgate. They were married on February, 5, 1570. He had a son named Charles another son named John who married Regina Semliano, and died December 18.1649. He had another son named Isaac and a daughter named Mary. Now, this son John that I speak of was a merchant in London, England, and he had a son named Isaac who came to America and settled in York County, Virginia, but before coming to America he married Sarah a sister of John and Edward Lockley of London. Now, kindly write me if you please, giving me all the facts connected with your family, your father back as far as you can trace. I would certainly appreciate same.

With sincere regards, I beg to remain

Yours very truly,
